Rory Wilson

Rory Wilson is a Bermudian Filmmaker, currently working out of the UK in film and television. 'COERCE' is Rory's sixth short film as writer/director and is currently on the short film festival circuit. Rory's previous film 'Loco', currently available on Omeleto, won Best Film at BFI Future Film Festival, as well as best original screenplay at ODEON National Youth Film Awards.
I am a self-taught filmmaker and have made six short films which have been screened and won awards at film festivals. Most recently, my short film 'Loco' won Best Film at the London BFI Future Film Festival 2021. My aim is to eventually work on feature length films.
